GLADIOLUS

Catalog and Price List---February 1, 1930

In spite of the fact that we have sold more bulbs during the fall and winter than we did in the entire selling season of last year, we begin 1930 with a fine supply of Glads and hope to be able to satisfy the needs of our old customers, whom we have supplied so many times, as well as those of hundreds of new ones who are receiving our list for the first time.

All of our bulbs were grown on new soil that had never been used for Glads before. Stock was treated with Semesan before planting as a preventative of disease infection. We believe the crop we harvested is proof of the quality of the soil and the correctness of growing methods. We guarantee all bulbs to be true to name. Our acreage is rogued very carefully almost every day and practically the only chance of bulbs not being true is when grown from bulblets we have purchased but that did not reach blooming size the past season. If at any time a rogue should occur in the bulbs we sell, tell us and we will make it right.

We guarantee you will be treated right. We want satisfied customers—not merely one order. It costs more to get you on our mailing list than one small order is worth so we have to deliver the goods to make a profit on repeats. If there is anything wrong, tell us.

All prices in this catalogue include packing and transportation to any place in the United States. We ship to Dec. 1st in the fall and after March 1st in the spring at our own risk. If you wish your bulbs during the winter you assume the possibility of their loss by freezing. We reserve the right to ship by either mail or express.

We do not substitute another variety for one you order. If stock is short we may send a size larger or smaller, giving extra count of course to make up for a small size.

As you notice, we offer bulblets of most all kinds. We do this without any recommendation as to their purchase by amateurs. Some of them will grow as easily as radish seed while those of others will require lots of attention to get any great percent to germinate.

Some people are not familiar with variety names. To these we suggest that they tell us how many bulbs they want, how much they wish to spend and the colors they prefer. We will be glad to make up mixtures or assortments, labeled or not, to fit any specifications and will assure you a heaping money's worth.

During the past season, we received many letters commending us on the quality of our bulbs, liberal count and general good treatment. We thank these friends for their kind words. In fact we would have liked to publish a few of these letters in this catalogue but lack of space prevents.

Join the American Gladiolus Society. The Review (a fine magazine issued monthly) is easily worth the membership fee of $2, in fact some single issues are worth that much. Mail application and $2 to Roscoe A. Huff, secretary, Goshen, Indiana.
